10:00-10:30  The Internship Experience  C102 Aylesworth
Enjoy hearing about real world industry experience from students who just spent their summer in New York and Los Angeles with major fashion companies and manufacturers.

*The next two sessions will have smaller groups who will alternate between the following sessions:

10:30-11:15*  Creating Your Style  301 Gifford
Watch our recent graduates put together new styles and wardrobes for young women with merchandise from local retailers, then try some styling in teams.

11:15-12:00*  Designing a Fashion Accessory  334 Gifford
Enjoy collaborating and designing with your team to create an accessory from recycled materials to be featured at our Fall FGI Student Recycled Fashion Show.

12:00-12:45  Lunch at the Academic Village

12:45-2:00  Campus Tour with Admissions Ambassadors
Join us on campus and explore the opportunities and facilities of design & merchandising for a glimpse at furthering your education in creative industries. The Department of Design and Merchandising offers Bachelor of Science degree programs in Apparel and Merchandising and Interior Design. Our apparel and merchandising program includes two concentrations in merchandising and apparel design and production. Graduates of our department enjoy rewarding careers working for major apparel manufacturers, designers, and retailers in Colorado and fashion capitals around the world.

This program is open to students in grades 6-12. To attend, please complete the registration information below. The cost of $15 per-person includes an on campus lunch and supplies. We are limited to 60 students for the day and registration forms must be received by Monday, September 29, 2014. Please note: We are unable to accept credit card payment.

Transportation and parking are not provided for this event. Daily parking passes can be purchased at www.parking.colostate.edu.
